

HUNDREDS START CAMPAIGN FOR 8000 RED CROSS MEMBERS HERE

Headquarters at Sheldon Hotel Thronged With Willing Workers, Who Put on Uniforms and Insignia, Fly Emblems and Begin Taking Names; Staff Assemblies; Daily Luncheons and Reports Begin.

ENTHUSIASM and energy was in evidence with the hundreds of Red Cross workers that thronged the lobby of the Sheldon Hotel, Monday morning, as they reported for orders to managers of the campaign for enlisting 8000 members of the American Red Cross in El Paso.

The actual campaign was begun at 9 o'clock and captains of all men's and women's teams reported in person at headquarters to receive instructions and outfits for work. Women captains reported to Mrs. J. A. Rawlings and were given typewritten instructions, while the men captains reported to H. H. Andrews, manager of men's teams. Besides these were numerous other officials of the Red Cross at headquarters.

Don Their Brands. All captains wore arm bands of red, white and blue with the red cross emblem. Workers wore red cross emblems, a red cross on a white field, and also emblems for their hats, while all autos engaged in the work were decorated with red cross flags.

There were 248 of the arm bands, made in hurry up fashion at Red Cross headquarters in the White House, a committee consisting of Mrs. J. L. Campbell, Mrs. C. Garcia, Mrs. W. L. Small, Mrs. H. Wilson, Mrs. H. H. Schultz, and Mrs. W. Garcia.

Put Out 120 Large Flags. Two 120 large service flags of a red cross on a white field, used in decorating were made by members of the sewing department under the charge of Mrs. J. L. Campbell.

Each worker carried a supply of membership cards, buttons and small service flags on which a small red cross was to be affixed for each member of the Red Cross in the household.

Among those assisting at headquarters in addition to Dr. W. L. Brown, general manager, Mrs. Rawlings, in charge of the women's teams, and H. H. Andrews, manager of the men's teams, were: Mrs. J. A. Rawlings, secretary of the Red Cross; Charles H. Bassett, vice chairman, acting as auditor; Dr. H. H. Stark, treasurer; Mrs. H. W. Brown, general chairman of women's work; Mrs. J. P. Williams, general chairman of sewing work; Mrs. J. B. Brown, chairman of church services; Mrs. H. H. Sullivan, chairman of organizations; Mrs. N. Keller, Miss Edith Crutcher and Katherine Muskhilov.

Advertising Is Active. Dr. Stark had charge of the placing of posters advertising the campaign in store windows. Mrs. P. Carlin, publicity manager, was also about headquarters aiding in every way.

At the opening of headquarters there were a number of persons waiting to take out the first membership. No reports will be available until 4 o'clock this afternoon when captains make their reports at headquarters.

Asks Uniforms Worn. Dr. W. L. Brown announced that he wished members of all uniformed units to wear their uniforms until after the campaign had ended.

The big Liberty bell, which is to ring out the accession in membership, has been placed on the second floor of the Sheldon and will be put up this afternoon.

Have Daily Luncheons. Luncheons will be held daily, commencing Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Bassett building, corner Mills and Stanton, which has been donated by Hummel Bros. Tea and hot chocolate will be served. Captains must make their reports and turn in their reports at headquarters.

Offers Yearly Donation. S. Stevenson, 1304 Myrtle avenue informed workers at headquarters that he would donate $1.00 a year as long as the war lasted.

A Hogan was furnished the committee by Norman Walker, who is one of the team. It was "Buy a Red Cross and give Blood Will the double cross."

Chas. W. Mann of the Sheldon hotel, who became a life member last June and who has made other donations during 1917, donated $50 for 1918. This

WHITE HOUSE HAS 3000 RED CROSS

Myrtle Coblentz Pays Membership for All Except Department Heads.

Setting an example to other employers of the city in patriotism, Myrtle Coblentz, of the White House, today subscribed for membership in the Red Cross for all employees of her store, when Mr. Herbert Stevenson and a committee paid their call in the regular course of the Red Cross membership drive.

This subscription did not include heads of departments, all of whom insisted, Mr. Coblentz said, upon joining themselves.

"I felt it my duty to subscribe for membership for the other employees," she said. "Because the total, though it is between 3000 and 3500, possibly does not affect the White House as much as it would affect some of the individuals to take out membership."

I know that all the people in the store want to help the Red Cross and I considered it a pleasure and a privilege to subscribe for membership for them, trusting that all will keep up their membership hereafter."

Altogether the Red Cross will have over 200 members in the White House when the membership campaign is ended.

Mr. Coblentz, who, though it is not generally known, has been a steady supporter of the French Red Cross since the beginning of the war, has shown a deep interest in the work ever since it was commenced in this country. The women of El Paso have been given comfortable work rooms at the fourth floor of the White House for all their Red Cross activities, together with free elevator service and other conveniences. It is a convenient location and a pleasant working place and the Red Cross workers express their deepest appreciation of the kindness of Mr. Coblentz and his firm.

WILSON PRAISES SALE OF SEALS

Gives Endorsement to Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign of the Red Cross.

New York, Dec. 17.—The campaign of the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis to raise $2,000,000 for tuberculosis, through sale of Red Cross Christmas seals, is endorsed by president Wilson. In a letter to Dr. Charles J. Hatfield, executive committee of the association, made public today the president says:

"I am greatly interested in what you say about the very great increase in the demands made upon the anti-tuberculosis agencies of the country as a result of the circumstances of the war. The development of the anti-tuberculosis warfare under the leadership of the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis has been a source of satisfaction with me. At this time, when we are called upon to do our utmost to make the fighting forces of the United States the most efficient that human agency can produce, I cannot too strongly urge upon you and your associates, as well as upon all the people of the United States, the increasing necessity for pressing still further the program which has been made in the prevention of tuberculosis and other diseases."

"I am in thorough sympathy with the efforts which you are making to raise $2,000,000 from the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals and I hope that it will be possible for the people of the country to render support to this cause as generously as they have rendered it in other causes."

RED CROSS SEAL SALES REACH $2376.26 TOTAL

Several large stores in Texas cities have donated the seals. In El Paso of placing Red Cross Christmas seals on the packages which their patrons carry home. It is expected that the prize winners of the school seal campaign will be announced next Monday. The seal sales total has reached $2376.26.

Who knows more about music than the world's greatest artists!

What they think of the Victor

When selecting a musical instrument for your home wouldn't you value the opinions of the world's greatest artists? Wouldn't you like to benefit by what they think of it?

Certainly no one is better qualified to judge a musical instrument! They know music. Their life-work is music. And what they say about the Victrola is of the utmost importance.

They not only endorse the Victrola, but they show their unbounded confidence in it by making Victor Records exclusively.
